Introduction

Why are we here today?

- common interests – despite different roles
- joint problems – despite different cities or even nations
- shared hopes - How to implement ideas quicker, how to make change easier? How to win more acceptance for culture?

What has happened so far?

- European Conference in Essen on spillover effects of Culture
- Study on spillover effects in the Ruhr region.
- Collaboration of more than 40 creatives, artists, researchers

What do we aim for?

open for experiments and different views
take Essen City-Nord as an example and idea-generator learn for a role model which is of interest in other cities collect all - idealistic and sceptical - ideas

NOT for a final project to save the world
NOT for a project for Essen, but for many cities.

How do we work in the next days?

Open Space Principle
Group work
Presentations and „hänseln“
